“ If at first you don’t succeed, you’re running about average. “

M. H. Alderson

“ Think like a man of action, act like a man of thought. “

Henri Bergson

“ No man will make a great leader who wants to do it all himself, or to get all the credit for doing it. “

Andrew Carnegie

“ There are three kinds of lies: lies, damned lies, and statistics. “

Benjamin Disraeli

“ He that never changes his opinions, never corrects his mistakes, will never be wiser on the morrow than he is today. “

Tryon Edwards

“ Education’s purpose is to replace an empty mind with an open one. “

Malcom S. Forbes

“ There are two kinds of people, those who do the work and those who take the credit. Try to be in the first group; there is less competition there. “

Indira Gandhi

“ In times like these, it is always helpful to remember that there have always been times like these. “

Paul Harvey

“ I am a great believer in luck, and find that the harder I work, the more I have of it. “

Thomas Jefferson

“ The only place success comes before work is in the dictionary. “

Donald Kendall

“ Things may come to those who wait, but only the things left by those who hustle. “

Abraham Lincoln

“ It isn’t the people you fire who make your life miserable, it’s the people you don’t. “

Harvey Mackay

“ On the mountains of truth you can never climb in vain: either you will reach a point higher up today, or you will be training your powers so that you will be able to climb higher tomorrow. “

Friedrich Nietzsche

“ Character is much easier kept than recovered. “

Thomas Paine
