" We ought to do good to others as simply as a horse runs, or a bee makes honey, or a vine bears grapes season after season without thinking of the grapes it has borne. "

Marcus Aurelius

" Whatever you do, do it with all your might. Work at it, early and late, in season and out of season, not leaving a stone unturned, and never deferring for a single hour that which can be done just as well as now. "

P.T. Barnum

" Opportunity does not knock, it presents itself when you beat down the door. "

Kyle Chandler

" As a rule, he or she who has the most information will have the greatest success in life. "

Disraeli

" Leadership is the art of getting someone else to do something you want done because he wants to do it. "

Dwight D. Eisenhower

" Even if you're on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there. "

Arthur Godfrey

" Don't do drugs because if you do drugs you'll go to prison, and drugs are really expensive in prison. "

John Hardwick

" Nothing gives one person so much advantage over another as to remain always cool and unruffled under all circumstances. "

Thomas Jefferson

" You will never stub your toe standing still. The faster you go, the more chance there is of stubbing your toe, but the more chance you have of getting somewhere. "

Charles Kettering

" Most people are about as happy as they make up their minds to be. "

Abraham Lincoln

" Beginning today, treat everyone you meet as if they were going to be dead by midnight. Extend to them all the care, kindness, and understanding you can muster, and do it with no thought of any reward. Your life will never be the same again. "

Og Mandino

" The harder you work, the luckier you get. "

Gary Player
