" But the only way of discovering the limits of the possible is to venture a little way past them into the impossible. "

Arthur C. Clarke

" A deadline is a negative inspiration. Still, it's better than no inspiration at all. "

Rita Mae Brown

" Seek not for fresher founts afar, just drop your bucket where you are. "

Sam Walter Foss

" Do what you can, with what you have, where you are. "

Theodore Roosevelt

" Anyone can hold the helm when the sea is calm. "

Publilius Syrus

" The trouble with doing something right the first time is that nobody appreciates how difficult it was. "

Walt West

" Life is like riding a bicycle. You don't fall off unless you plan to stop pedaling. "

" You may have to fight a battle more than once to win it. "

Margaret Thatcher

" Champions keep playing until they get it right. "

Billie Jean King

" The man who rows the boat generally doesn't have time to rock it. "

Unknown

" How far you go in life depends on you being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and the strong. Because someday in life you will have been all of these. "

George W. Carver

" All you need in this life is ignorance and confidence, and then success is sure. "

Mark Twain

" How many a man has thrown up his hands at a time when a little more effort, and a little more patience would have achieved success. "

Elbert Hubbard
